Put your cooking skills to the test by making the most creative and the most mouth-watering cekodok. Participation is by individual or group. Open to all participants !! No limit as to the ingredients used or to the number of cekodok to be prepared (the more, the merrier). Banana? Onion? Prawn? Pumpkin? Chicken? Durian? Strawberry? Belacan? Ice-cream? Chocolate Chip? M&M’s? Go ahead ! Make the extraordinary ! ...as long as it is halal, please. Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/27> for rules and regulations.

9.30 AM Welcoming Remarks

(Don’t worry, it is very brief)

9.45 AM Talk: “Making it Happen”

Speaker: Mrs. Atie Rosemary, Senior Lecturer at Universiti Malaya. Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/28> for background information of the speaker.

Get study tips from this highly experienced lecturer. She received her education from overseas, has experience with industry and has supervised many undergraduate students.

10.45 AM Competition: "I Know My Country"

All is invited to participate. Participants’ knowledge on latest developments in our beloved country will be tested. Attractive prizes await! Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/27> for rules and regulations.

11.00 AM Forum: “I’ve Graduated. What Next?”

In this forum, panel members of various working backgrounds will share their experiences and give a broad perspective of the working scenario that awaits graduating students. Don’t miss the opportunity to interact with them and ask for tips to be the “worker or choice”!.

Forum panel members:

1. Mr. Wan Othman Mohd Noor,
Malaysia Airlines (MAS) Manager
2. Dr. Nik Z Nik Wan
Cardiologist Consultant, Greenslopes Specialist Centre,
Queensland
3. Mr. Muhammad Shahril Othman
Administration and Diplomatic Officer (PTD).

Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/28> for background information of the panel members.

11.45 AM Interaction Session: “Meet my mates”

In this session, discussion platforms are provided to allow postgraduate / spouse and undergraduate students in the same academic field to interact. Among academic field groups are: biotechnology, engineering, business, entrepreneurship, social science, teaching and others.

What is the purpose?

For Postgraduates and Their Spouses:

This opportunity can be used to offer advice and share experiences with undergraduates and new postgraduate students. Share your study and work experiences with our young newcomers to the challenging world of the working field. Search for potential “colleagues”!.

“A research is not done until it’s published”. Exhibit your research results in the form of a poster for all to see and read. Share the knowledge gained from your hard work in doing research.

For Undergraduates:

This is the best chance to initiate networking among fellow undergraduates and postgraduates and their spouses. Many of our postgraduate students and their spouses are experts in their respective fields. Among their jobs are: lecturers, researchers, doctors, teachers, engineers, architects, entrepreneurs, managers, and many others.

Don’t miss the opportunity to ask tons of questions to assist you in your study and in starting your first job.

For Everyone:

Relax and test your mind with various games!

Be the winner of the “Best Academic Field” award!

To be eligible to win, 3 competitions will be held. Which academic field group can list:

- 1) The longest terminology?
- 2) The most terminology?
- 3) The most jobs?

Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/27> for rules and regulations.

12.30 PM      Zuhur prayer, hajat prayer (for muslims) and lunch
...with exams just around the corner, let us pray and ask blessings from God...

**Not forgetting: a lucky draw and fun games for kids ****

Visit <http://www.ppmq.org/v2/node/27> for rules and regulations.
